Christmas Shopping.

What a world of work there is to be done in the next two weeks. We've seen to it that all parts of the store service are equal to the occasion.

From basement to top floor there are thousands of appropriate presents—big things and little things, useful things and ornamental ones—and all thoughtful and all marked at uniformly moderate prices.

Our force of salespeople is ample—about a thousand in all. Our cash system prevents long waits for change—extra cash desks on each floor.

Our delivery service is prompt and efficient—25 wagons in all. Our six spacious elevators make the upper floors easy and quick of access.

Telephone and telegraph offices, post office, bureau of information, package checking room—main floor.

Much trouble and annoyance may be avoided if you will, in making purchases, follow this rule: When you give the address to the salesperson, for delivery of goods, insist on seeing that it is correctly written.

Please take small parcels with you, when practicable.

Many lots of goods get first showing today.

DELIGHTFUL OCCASION MARKING

MISS HALFORD'S DEBUT.

Family Residence Thronged by Nobles and Fragrant with Flowers.

Interesting Personal Notes.

Miss Ruth Halford made her debut Saturday afternoon at a tea, which was given at the house of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Halford.

By a notable assemblage of friends from 4 to 7. This charming young girl, whose intellectual accomplishments are no less marked than her pleasing manner and graceful movements, wore a pretty dress of white muslin and lace and carried an armful of roses and orchids. These flowers were, however, only a suggestion of the many bouquets sent her in honor of her coming out, the fragrant burden of congratulations covering mantel and cabinet tops and gilling prettily with the profuse ornamentation of southern smilax, which latter canopied ceilings and nearly covered the walls. Mrs. Halford, in a highly becoming toilet of mauve crepe and lace, was assisted in her hospitality by Mrs. John W. Foster, Mrs. E. J. Foster, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. John O. Evans, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Coleman of Indianapolis, Miss Olive Gale, Miss Harter, Miss George, Mrs. St. John, Rigdon, while in the dining room Mrs. Burrows presided at the daintily set and abundantly-provided refreshment table. Several hundred guests were present during the reception.

The marriage of Miss Lisle Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Goff Sears, to Mr. James Thomas Gardner, will take place tomorrow noon at St. John's Church. The couple will be at home after December 20 at Augusta, Ga.

Mrs. Fairbanks will be given a reception Monday next at the home of Mrs. E. B. Cowles, Brookline, Boston.

Miss Michener will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Murat Halbed during opera week in Cincinnati.

Mr. William Loeb, assistant secretary to President Roosevelt, and Miss Katherine W. Dorr will be married Thursday at the home of the bride's parents in Albany, N. Y. Only relatives will be present at the ceremony, but a small reception will follow. The couple will take a short trip before coming to this city. They will live at the Richmond.

Mrs. Richard W. Clay of Philadelphia is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cecil Clay, at No. 1613 S Street.

A birthday party was given Friday evening, December 6, by Miss Edith Lowry at her residence, 106 12th street southeast, to a number of her young friends. The parlor and dining rooms were tastefully decorated with palms and cut flowers. During the evening many interesting games were played, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. The young hostess was the recipient of many presents.

At the residence of Mrs. George A. Atchison, Lillian Atchison, Marion Kelly, Edna Dodge, Mary Ramby, Edna Smith, Ethel Symonds, Edith Tupper, Genevieve Rose, Florence Lowry and the Messrs. G. Carter Lowry, Vernon Burdine, Perry Patterson, Selby Burgh, William Morton, Owen Briggs, William Lowry, Walter Ball and Master Milton Lowry.

Mrs. Fitzjohn Porter and Miss Porter are spending a few weeks at the Grafton.

A quiet wedding took place Thanksgiving eve at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, 815 C Street southeast, when their only daughter Maude became the bride of Mr. J. Wesley Birch. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McGuire of St. Peter's Church. The bride wore a gown of gray lainsdowne, trimmed with chiffon and applique and carried a bouquet of white roses. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed. The couple have returned after a brief trip north and reside at 470 Maryland avenue southwest.

Mr. Sol. Berliner, United States consul at Tenerife, Canary Islands, and his wife, formerly Miss Jennie Ottenberg of Washington, D. C., gave their first formal dinner to celebrate the opening of their beautiful home there, November 17. The invited guests were Senator Don Roman de Loriza Sabater, the civil governor, Mr. Robert C. Griffiths, the vice consul; Padre Mora, bishop of the Canaries, and Senator Don Antonio Yanes, a prominent resident. The floral decorations were of palms, cacti, roses, jasmine and pepper blossoms. The dinner was served in ten courses. Mr. Berliner gave some examples of American mixed drinks. Mrs. Berliner received in a handsome gown of pink satin with black and gold oriental trimmings. It was one of the most elaborate dinners ever known in the islands.

There was a pleasant gathering Friday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Graham, No. 111 Howard avenue, Anacostia, to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Musical selections were rendered and refreshments served. Mr. S. G. Brown read a poem, prepared for the evening.

Mr. Maurice D. O'Connell, solicitor of the treasury, who resided at 262 C Street last year, has removed to 2116 O. Mrs. O'Connell and daughter will be at home the first and second Saturdays every month.

Mrs. C. G. Guthrie of Passaic, N. J., is visiting Miss Kaufmann.

"The Jolly Crowd" were entertained by Major A. G. Ames at his country home Saturday night. Many interesting games were played, after which refreshments were served. Among those present were: Miss Lenoir and Blanche Murphy, Lillian Bell, Selma, Jessie Cary, Gaines, Hagan, Brown, Myers, Nash and others. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bell, A. G. Sharp, Arthur Heindel, H. C. Jones, M. Cheseldine, Gibbins, Sheinault, Sullivan and E. C. Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander.
